Investigation Leads to Arrest of La Porte Man for Child Sex Crimes

Kenneth Marvin Alger, 11/12/1962

On February 4, 2021, the La Porte Police Department (LPPD) received information that Kenneth Marvin Alger, 58, of La Porte, might have been in possession of child pornography. An investigation was conducted in cooperation with LPPD's Criminal Investigation's Division (CID), the Department of Homeland Security, the Harris County District Attorney's Office, and the Houston-Metro Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force. The investigation culminated in Alger's arrest.

During the investigation, search warrants were executed at Alger's residence in the 1500 block of South 8th Street, as well as his business located in the 1600 block of South 16th Street of La Porte. The ongoing investigation has revealed there could be more victims who came into contact with Alger.

At this time, Alger is charged with two counts of sexual performance by a child under age 14 and one count of possession with intent to promote child pornography. He is currently being held at the Harris County Jail on bonds totaling $160,000.00.

If you have information regarding any juvenile contact with Alger, contact the La Porte Police Department's Criminal Investigation Division at hairea@laportetx.gov or 281-842-3173.
